Foreword

Welcome! I, the 1959 FORTRESS, am pleased to present a glimpse of school days.

My camera crew has snapped pictures from September through May to capture those treasures gone but not forgotten. As you scan my pages, all the good times and good friends at dear Fort Ashby High will live again in vivid memory.

My best wishes for a pleasant journey through the pages ahead.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1959, take pleasure in dedicating our yearbook, The FORTRESS, to you, Mr. Riley, our co-sponsor and advisor.

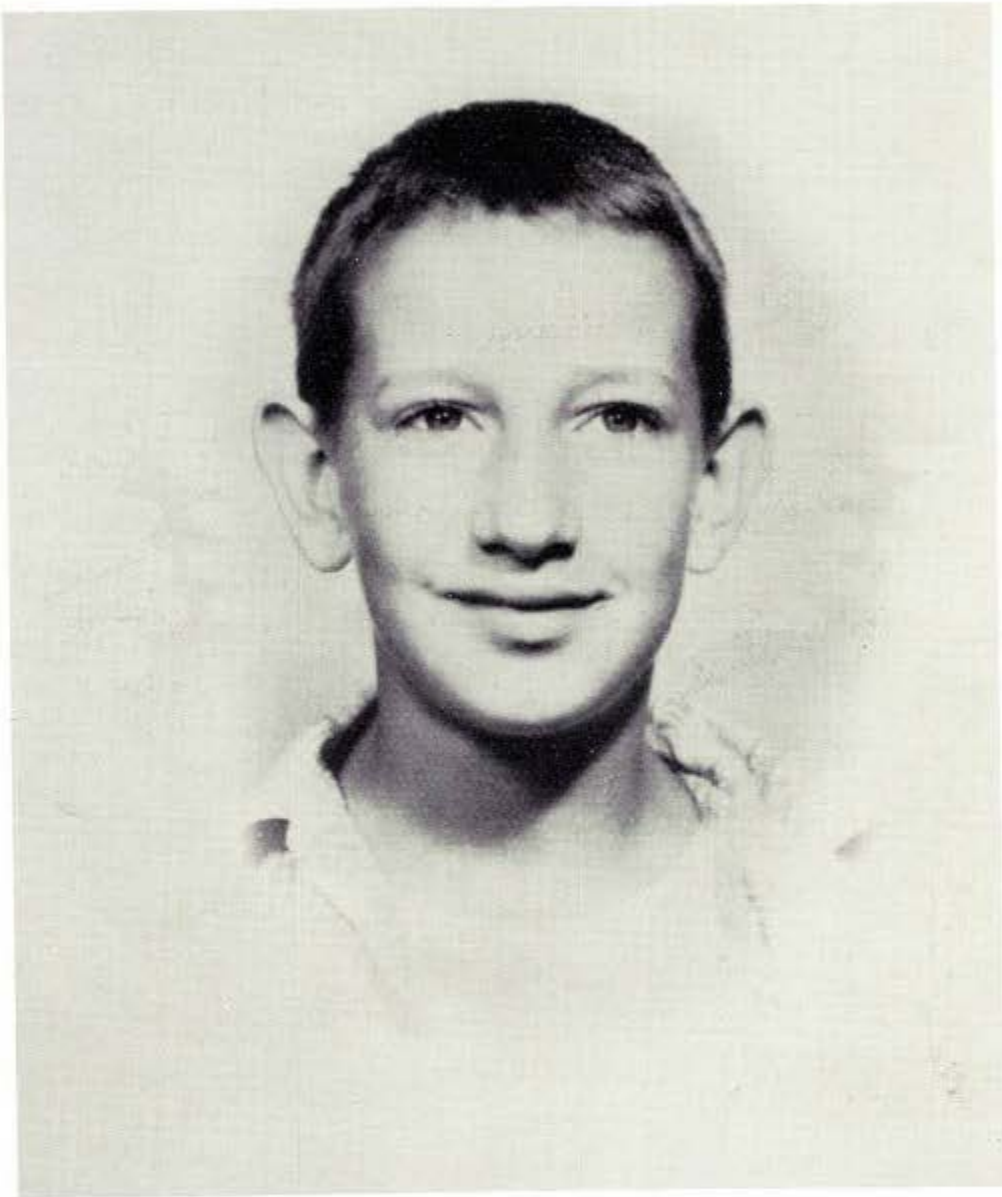

You have always been ready to lend us a helping hand and to show us right from wrong. As an alumnus of Fort Ashby High School, you understand our problems, our needs, and our aims, not only as a class but also as individual students working for scholastic achievement.

Thank you, Mr. Riley, for serving so well as helper and friend.

OUR FATHER

Our Father who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done
On earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil:

Amen.

Class of 1959,

As I take my pen to inscribe a few remarks, I cannot help but think how fortunate you are to be students of Fort Ashby High this nineteenth year of our school. You are fortunate because so many students of your age in other states are denied the opportunity of being seniors this year because of the integration problems.

Four years ago we started together as "freshmen," you as students and I as principal. You have helped greatly to make Fort Ashby High the better school it is today.

It has been a most pleasant experience working with you. I hope that you may continue your education and training if possible, and that you may see the fulfillment of the promise of widening horizons in this new and exciting age.

Good luck, Seniors!

MANAGERS

Gary Logsdon, "Doug" Kenney, "Jack" Mauk.

During the 1958-59 basketball season, the Fort Ashby Eagles compiled a record of 13 wins and 8 losses. This was one of the school's best seasons under the coaching of Quentin Sayers and Edward Riley.

In the Potomac Valley Conference the Eagles finished 5th with 10 wins and 5 losses. In the Mineral County League they tallied 3 wins and 3 losses.

High scoring honors of the season went to two seniors: "Bill" Price with 450 total points and an average of 21.4 points per game, followed by Glen Pyles with 374 total points and an average of 19.7 points per game.

Other individual scores for the season:

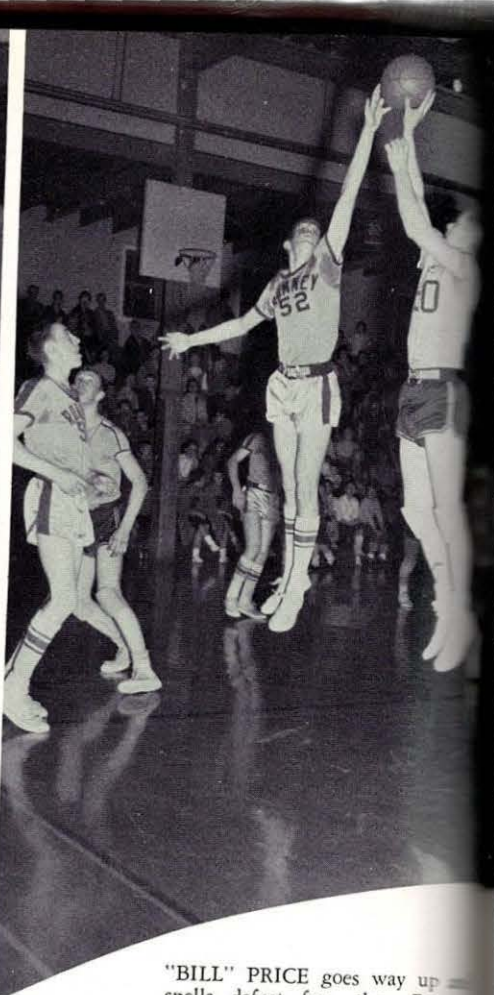

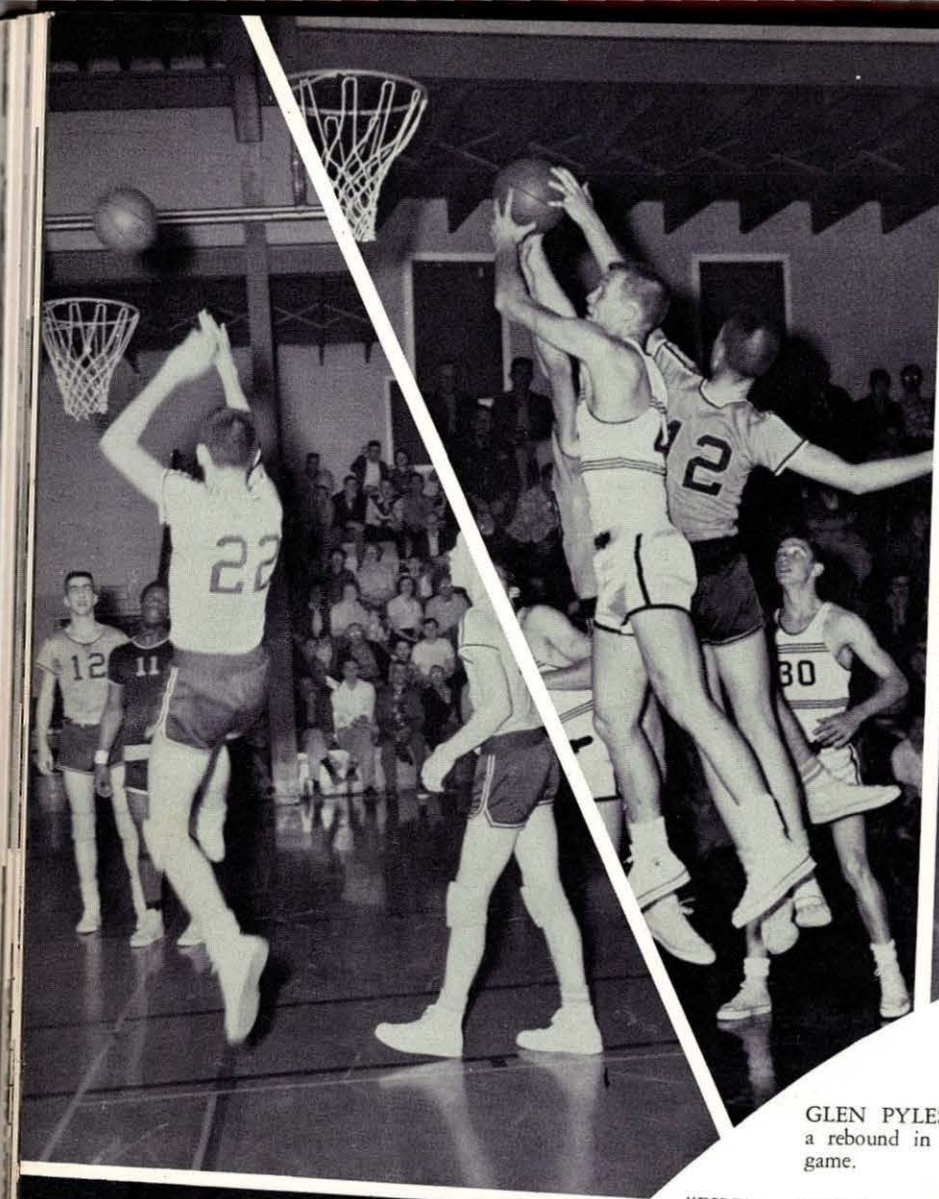

Harold Hershberger, 185	"Timmy" Adams, 48
"Jimmy" Steed, 146	"Kenny" Harper, 21
Gary Umstot, 97	Johnny Tipping, 13
"Bill" Anderson, 65	Edward Wasson, 8

The total points for seniors who participated in more than one year of varsity play are as follows: Glen Pyles, 710 points for 3 years; "Bill" Price, 562 points for 2 years; Harold Hershberger, 361 points for 3 years; and Edward Wasson, 11 points for 2 years.

In the opening game of the Class A, Section 13 Basketball Tournament on February 27, the Eagles lost to the Piedmont Lions. The following night they came back and defeated Elk Garden to win the Consolation. Glen Pyles was placed on the All-Tournament team.

Next year the Eagles will begin their season with the return of three of their players: "Timmy" Adams, "Jimmy" Steed, and Gary Umstot.

"BILL" PRICE goes way up spells defeat for the Roman Pioneers.

GLEN PYLES battles for a rebound in the Ridgeley game.

"BILL" ANDER-SON scores against the invading Black and Gold from Keyser.

HAROLD HERSH-
BERGER attempts to get the ball
through to a teammate.

"BILL" PRICE breaks up a pass against LaSalle.

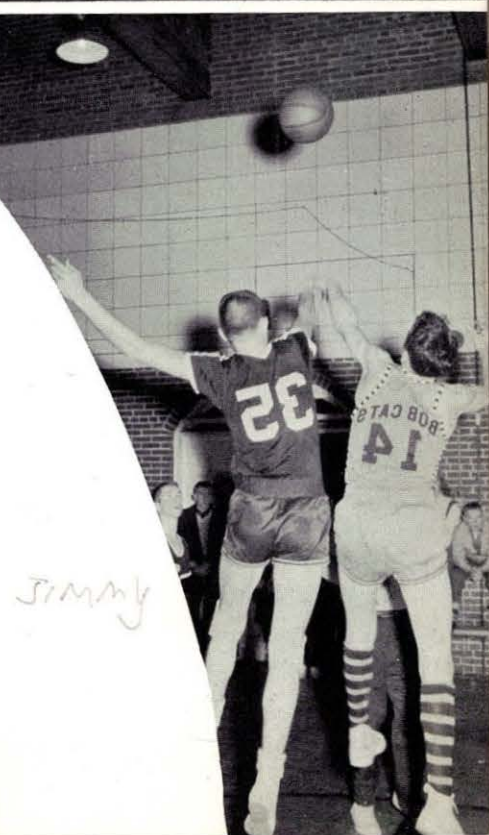

GARY UMSTOT shoots a onehand jump on the Bobcats' home floor.

GLEN PYLES is up and under for a well earned goal.

"BILL" ANDERSON goes up for the tip against Capon Bridge.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1959 of Fort Ashby High School, being of simple mind and desiring to leave nothing to chance, do hereby make known to all people concerned our last will and testament:

Eunice Abe bequeaths her place in the minstrel to Shirley Beam.

FALASHBIAN Business Manager Frances Abe willingly leaves Colin Lease all her duties.

"Sonny" Abe leaves his run-out-of-gas problems to Gary Shanholtz.

Judy Isner is proud to be given Carol Alt's love for music.

William Anderson passes his chemistry knowledge to "Joe" Kesner.

Barbara Bauer bequeaths her "baby" car to Coach Sayers and his driver's education class.

Paul Borrer leaves William Shanholtzer the keys to his Ford.

Quiet Blanche Bosley wills her violet bashfulness to Carole Colmer. But will anything help?

John Boyland leaves "Doug" Wolford his stripped down flivver, plus his speeding tickets.

Norma Allen is the recipient of Donna Brelsford's excess energy.

Larry Brown's whiskers are given to "Steve" Adams. Wear them with honor, "Steve."

"Ken" Chase bequeaths his loafing-in-the-office to Richard Abe.

Rae Carole Emmart willingly gives Carole Miller her height.

Faye Evans leaves her cute smile to the principal's secretary, Mrs. Brelsford, Use it often, Louise.

Carol Getz wills her ability to play the accordion to her sister Wanda.

"Kenny" Harper's love for "hot rod" magazines goes to James Powell.

Cheerleader Donna Hershberger passes her cheerleading skirt to Elanore Phares.

Roger Malone, our Elvis Presley, inherits Harold Hershberger's flat-top.

Irene Iman leaves Jean Massie her ability to love just one.

Gary Kenney leaves all his school books to just anybody.

FALASHBIAN Club Editor Norma Kenney gives her title to Ethel Wagoner.

Patricia Kidwell's giggles are passed on to Beth Shreve.

Ruth Lark presents her middle name Alberta to whoever can stand it.

Ruth Liller leaves Kay Clevenger her waves.

Eagles' manager Gary Logsdon leaves "Jack" Mauk his job. Do it well, "Jack."

Bernard Long endows "Jim" Steed with his honor of valedictorian.

John Mellon's shy and usually quiet ways go to Joylou Harper. Will it work?

Beverly Myers endows "Joy" Boyland with her ability to get along with teachers. Try to live up to it, "Joy."

Warren Nestor is proud to present his quiet ways and well-trained manners to Arnold French.

June Haines is the recipient of Janet Newhouse's special seat on Biser's bus.

William Price leaves "Phil" Dayton his ability to tell jokes without laughing.

Glen Pyles is ready to give up all other dates for one special girl, so "Timmy" Adams is given Glen's lost desire.

Janet Adams is the most deserving recipient of Nancy Pyle's title of "most courteous."

Lee Rexrode gives his Lilt home permanent to Samuel Iman.

Free hair cuts seem to be David Sherman's luck, so the luck is passed on to "Doug" Kenney.

Wayne Shreve passes his muscles to small, but certainly not easily forgotten, "Jimmy" Hartman.

Ernest Snyder gives his bowling duty to Harold Vance.

Mary Snyder's diamond love is given to Sandra Allen.

Patsy Spencer bestows upon Wanda Umstot her ability to make good grades.

Mr. Thorn is given "Frank" Steed's white bucks.

Johnny Tipping gives his basketball uniform to Donald Broome.

Larry Troutman leaves "Bobby" Snyder his particular hair style.

To Linda Kimble, David VonHagel bequeaths his most pleasing personality.

Harley Wagoner leaves his ability to travel through low places to Jerry Clevenger.

Judy Wagoner's short, blonde hair is bestowed upon Patricia Allen.

Edward Wasson wills Curtis Elliott his ability to date all the girls.

Dowaine Weaver bequeaths all his piano-lesson books to Naomi Moreland, hoping she too will play.

Edward Willison gives his back seat in economics class to "Freddie" Adams.

Joyce Wolford grants Shelia White her naturally wavy hair.

Class Prophecy

Irene Iman Riggleman, who left our class right after mid-term to complete her high school studies at Broadway, Virginia, looks to the tomorrows and lists her findings.

After a lapse of nearly a decade, so the record should show, prophet Irene returns to the fast growing town of Fort Ashby to learn the status of the 59'ers of Fort Ashby High.

Upon arrival she is greeted by Navy Lieutenant Paul Borrer, who happens to be passing through town. Also at the transportation depot she meets Beverly Myers Bosley and Ruth Liller Riden, who are returning from a shopping trip to Cumberland. The two are now mothers and happy housewives.

Moving toward the center of town, the visitor notices a familiar name on an office door. She enters and greets Dr. Bernard Long, who at that moment happens to be in his reception room filled with patients. Dr. Long nods toward the office desk where Irene sees his receptionist, Faye Evans, looking neat and efficient. What luck! Less than half an hour in town and already Irene has contacted five of her 59'ers. But this is only the beginning, for this is really her lucky day.

Emerging from the office, the prophet is greeted by Air Force Pilot David VonHagel. How handsome he looks in his Air Force blue! He informs her that David Sherman is also in the Air Force and will be home in a few days. Pilot VonHagel says he is on his way to the Air Force center in Cumberland, where "Bill" Price is the local recruiting officer.

Farther down the street the visitor sees a sign reading Donna's Beauty Salon. That name raises memories—it just could be! So she enters and meets the manager who, as she suspected, is none other than Donna Hershberger. While the two are greeting each other, in walks Barbara Bauer who loses no time in displaying her diamond and letting it be known that she has already chosen her bridal gown. After this exciting encounter, Miss Hershberger decides to take the rest of the day off and show the out-of-town visitor around.

The two approach the Fort Ashby elementary school. Knowing that school is in session, they enter and by coincidence the first person they meet is Miss Janet Newhouse, the first grade teacher. Just a look at her pupils and classroom makes it apparent that Miss Newhouse likes her work and is in turn liked by those whom she teaches.

A visit to the high school on the hill is also rewarding, for there the two visitors meet the principal's secretary, Miss Patsy Spencer, who shortly takes them to the home economics instructor, Miss Donna Brelsford; then on to another high school teacher, Miss Nancy Pyles. Memories of bygone days are exchanged, and the two move on to greet other pals of that year of '59.

Again they are on the street and, as Miss Hershberger looks at her watch, she tells her companion that right then disc jockey "Sonny" Abe is doing his daily radio program of rock 'n' roll. Irene makes a mental note that she must tune in that program when she gets home.

The conversation turns to the town of Fort Ashby and its rapid growth in population and progress. The visitor is informed that the acting mayor is William Anderson, who has studied to be a lawyer and has just become a member of the local bar.

The prophet in quick succession learns of others of the 59'ers as her companion Donna fills her in. Carol Getz is in far-off Africa, telling the natives of the Christian way of life. Gary Kenney is proprietor of a local Texaco station. His helpers are John Mellon, who tends the pumps, and "Kenny" Harper, who is the full time mechanic.

Larry Brown has completed his required tenure in the United States Army and shows promise of leadership. He expects to re-enlist and make a career of it. Dowaine Weaver will hold up the FAHS reputation in the Navy.

Blanche Bosley is a private secretary in Keyser. Also doing secretarial work in the same city is Frances Abe. Blanche and Frances find each other congenial company.

Miss Hershberger tells of still other classmates. Norma Kenney is married and lives on Maryland Avenue, Cumberland. Also in the same city is Eunice Abe, who works at Lerner's, and Carol Alt, who is a stenographer for Potomac Edison.

Patricia Kidwell is taking religious training at a Bible school in Georgia. Farther south in the sunny land of Florida, Harold Hershberger is the commanding officer of a naval base.

Irene and Donna have been invited by telephone to the home of Mary Snyder Long for lunch. On their way they meet Harley Wagoner and "Frank" Steed, who have recently received their honorable discharge from the United States Army. The luncheon date with Mrs. Long passes all too quickly as host and guests reminisce.

Again on the city streets the two visitors meet the former Ruth Lark, a part-time receptionist for a local dentist, but whose chief business is being a housewife. With Ruth on the street is Joyce Wolford, a dental hygienist.

Then Donna takes Irene into the leading restaurant in town, Wagoner's Best Eats, managed by Judy Wagoner Ross. Here they also meet Rae Carole Emmart and Ernest Snyder. Rae Carole, they learn, is working in an orphanage, caring for children aged two weeks to three years. Ernest tells them that he is working at the local Gulf station, owned and operated by Wayne Shreve. Wayne also has a bulldozer which may be hired for a price.

As the two sip a cup of tea, Donna continues. Edward Wasson is studying to be a technical engineer. Johnny Tipping is home on furlough from a tour of duty with the United States Marines. This fightingest branch of service really builds men if the matured Johnny is a fair sample.

John Boyland, "Ken" Chase, and Edward Willison are working at the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory near Pinto, Maryland. All three are yearning to take a trip to the moon. When and if they do, they promise to bring or send back some of that famous green cheese of which, they have heard, the moon is made.

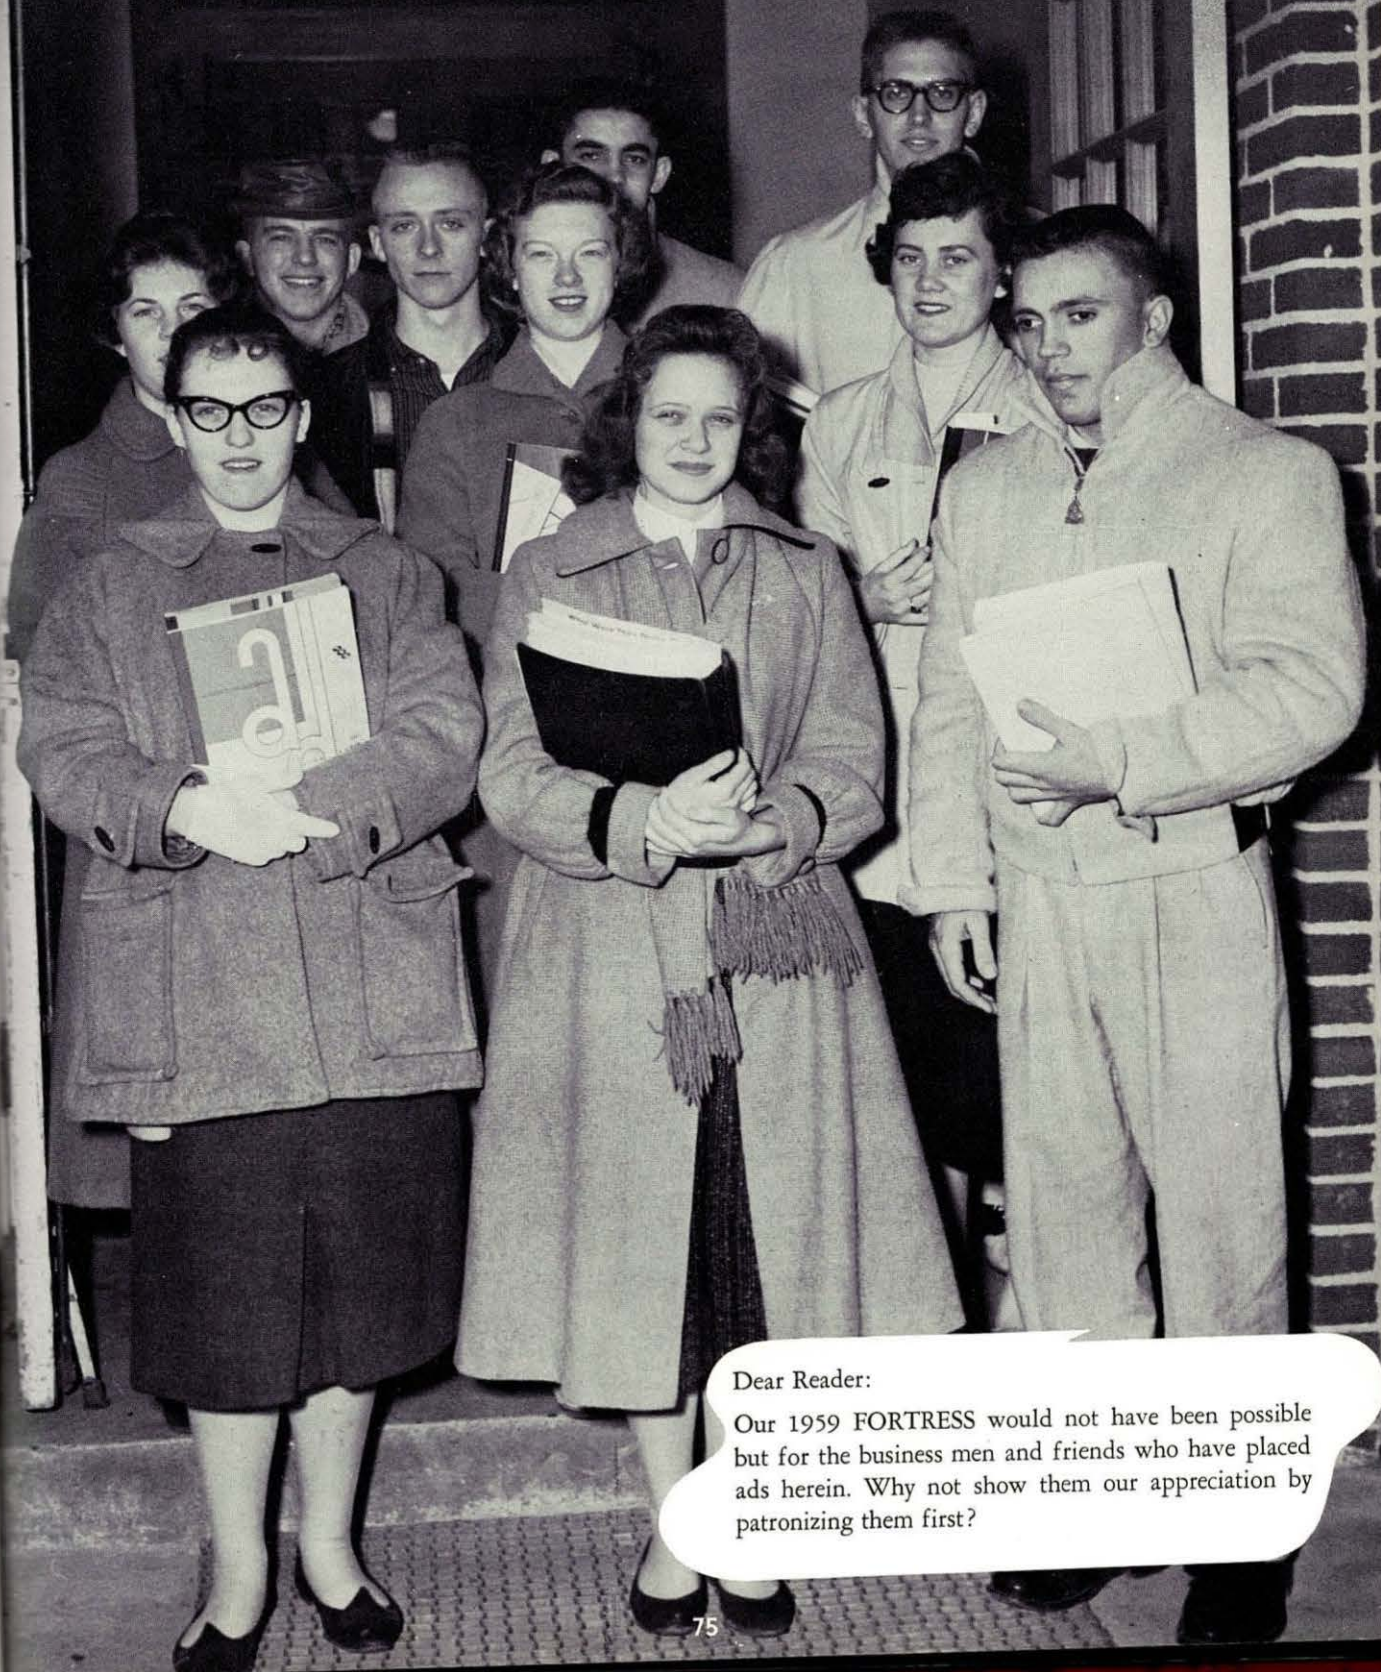

On the street the two ladies meet truck drivers Warren Nestor and Larry Troutman, who stop awhile to reminisce. Also navy man Glen Pyles comes by and tarries a bit to chat.

A little farther on, a new building is being erected. The builders are Gary Logsdon and Lee Rexrode. They greet the prophet and her companion and make known that they should like the contract to build Irene's house if and when she decides to vacate the trailer.

The Class of '59 has been accounted for, and it has indeed been a fruitful day for the prophet. She boards a bus to return to her husband and trailer at Broadway, Virginia; Donna returns to her beauty salon to pick up the receipts for the day.

FORT ASHBY PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

Objects of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers

To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and community.

To raise the standards of home life.

To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.

To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child.

To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

May Day

The May Day program was presented by the elementary schools on May 1. The rhythm band concert was directed by John Brown and Brenda Saville. An operetta entitled "Sleeping Beauty" was presented. Directors for this event were: Mrs. Umstot, Mrs. Welton, Mrs. Bloom, and Mrs. Spencer.

Following the rhythm band concert, an operetta, "A Little Bit of Holland," was presented by the fifth and sixth grades. The story told of two American girls who visited Holland and of the warm reception which they received. Operetta directors were: Mrs. May, Mrs. Prysock, and Mrs. Price. Mr. Knierim was musical director and accompanist for both parts of the program.

Phillip Dayton served as toastmaster at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet held on May 8 in the elementary school auditorium. The following program was presented: Invocation, Norma Allen; Welcome to the Seniors, Junior Class President James Steed; and Response, Senior Class President Donna Brelsford.

The guests were then served a roast turkey dinner. Music was from records featuring Tommy Dorsey and Ed Flemington.

Mary Lou Coleman read a poem entitled "Today is Ours." A quartet including Norma Allen, Carole Miller, Janet Adams, and Naomi Moreland sang the theme song, "I Love Paris."

in Paris

"Evening in Paris" was the theme for the Junior-Senior Prom. The gymnasium was decorated in the junior class colors of red and blue. In carrying out the French theme, the juniors constructed sidewalk cafes, and a large drawing of the Eiffel Tower and surrounding landscape highlighted the decorations.

Music was furnished by the Nu-Tones. Refreshments were served by French waiters. The girls' quartet again sang the theme song as a highlight of the evening.
